Dear Mr. Dureja,

I hope you're doing well.

My name is Eshita. I'm reaching out to explore a recruitment opportunity for the students at Bhagwan Parshuram Institute of Technology (BPIT).

We are interested in visiting BPIT to offer paid internships to your students, which could potentially lead to full-time positions. Our compensation package typically ranges between 5 to 7 LPA.

[a bit about GreyB] We are a Singapore based innovation consulting firm that performs custom analysis on patents, research papers, and market reports to drive insights. We directly work with the global headquarters of companies like Google, Facebook, Apple, Huawei etc.

We plan to do this by conducting an on-campus two-hour workshop where we will introduce a challenge designed to evaluate the research skills of the students. This initiative is open to B.Tech (3rd and Final Year), M.Tech, and Ph.D. students from all engineering and science disciplines.

Here are some key highlights for the students:

- 1. Internships: We are thrilled to offer internship positions to the top 5 winners from the workshop. These internships will enable students to work alongside our professionals and experience the real-world application of their studies.
- 2. Monetary Incentive: The GreyB Weekly Challenge will stand as an exciting chance for students to engage consistently with technology and win a prize of INR 20,000.
- 3. Career Head start: In both the workshop and the weekly challenges, standout participants will be considered for internship roles, providing them with an early career head start and a glimpse into the life of a tech consultant.
- 4. Participation Certificates: All attendees will receive a Participation Certificate, endorsed by GreyB, which can enhance their resume and attest to their proactive engagement in technology and innovation.

You can find more information here .

I am also sharing our PDF brochure.

We believe that this collaboration will be immensely beneficial in nurturing the talent at BPIT and are eager to set things into motion. We look forward to your partnership in this endeavour.

Could you please suggest some dates for the on-campus workshop in the third week of September 2024?

Regards,
Eshita
