

Ref. No. Principal/Notice/Academic/BPIT/4452

Dated: 8th October, 2026

NOTICE

Important Advisory to Students

All students are hereby advised not to participate in, join, or associate themselves with any protest, demonstration, gathering, or agitation, as this may adversely affect the academic environment and may also have an impact on their academic interests.

Students are advised to maintain discipline, decorum, and a peaceful academic environment and to focus on their ongoing examinations. They are encouraged to devote their time and attention to examination preparation and other academic activities.

Students are further advised to refrain from engaging in any activity that may disrupt the normal functioning of the Institute or cause inconvenience to fellow students, faculty members, or staff.

Any student found participating in activities that violate the rules, regulations, or disciplinary norms of the Institute may be liable for appropriate disciplinary action as per the applicable rules and regulations.

All students are requested to cooperate and give priority to their examinations, academic responsibilities, and overall academic interests.
